

Senior Partner at Renewable Energy Law Firm

Cleantech Law Partners, PC [www.cleantechlaw.com]

🕒 Job description

Cleantech Law Partners (CLP) is a specialty law firm that focuses exclusively on the legal needs of renewable energy project developers and cleantech companies. Our growing legal team is comprised of lawyers with extensive experience working with solar/wind/geothermal/biofuels project developers, financiers, manufacturers, and entrepreneurs on a variety of green initiatives, including: developing renewable energy projects, serving as general counsel to cleantech companies, structuring financial arrangements, negotiating power purchase agreements, navigating federal and state regulatory matters, drafting solar leases and real estate agreements, reviewing green building construction documents, securing intellectual property rights, applying for renewable energy grant programs, implementing corporate sustainability policies, advising on global climate change issues, etc.

We are currently seeking a senior-level attorney with significant experience in renewable energy and cleantech law to join our team. Qualified candidates are requested to please send resumes in confidence to recruiting@cleantechlawpartners.com. Please be sure to include a short cover letter that details relevant cleantech experience and explains your current employment situation.

🕒 Desired Skills and Experience

CLP is currently seeking a highly qualified attorney with excellent credentials to join our growing legal team. Ideal candidates should have the following skills and experience:

- At least 7 years of in-house, big firm or equivalent experience
- JD from a top law school
- Significant portable business
- Entrepreneurial spirit
- Exceptional client service and professionalism
- Passion for renewable energy and clean technologies
